Docket No. A2013-7

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR EXTENSION
AND ESTABLISHING DUE DATE FOR SUBMISSION OF DOCUMENTS

(Issued August 7, 2013)

The Public Representative identifies several documents that are missing from the Postal Service's Administrative Record that are instrumental to the issues raised in this appeal.¹ She requests an extension for filing responses to the Postal Service's motion to dismiss until the documents are filed.² She argues that this extension will allow interested persons adequate time to consider the missing documents' relevance to any responses. She suggests an extension until August 15, 2013, with the possibility of an additional extension depending on when the documents are actually filed by the Postal

¹ Consent Motion for an Extension of Time to File Responses to the Postal Service's Motion to Dismiss, August 6, 2013 (Motion for Extension); see also United States Postal Service Notice of Filing Administrative Record, August 1, 2013.

² Motion for Extension at 2; see also Motion of United States Postal Service to Dismiss Proceedings, August 1, 2013 (Motion to Dismiss).

Service. Motion for Extension at 2. The Public Representative was advised by counsel that “the Postal Service plans to file the missing Administrative Record documents in the next few days.” Id.

The due date for filing the complete Administrative Record was August 1, 2013.³ Timely review of this appeal cannot be undertaken without the complete Administrative Record. The Postal Service shall file all documents necessary to complete the Administrative Record no later than August 13, 2013.

The Motion for Extension is granted. Responses to the Postal Service’s Motion to Dismiss are due no later than August 16, 2013.⁴

It is ordered:

1. The Postal Service shall file all documents necessary to complete the Administrative Record no later than August 13, 2013.
2. Responses to the Postal Service's Motion to Dismiss are due no later than August 16, 2013.

By the Commission.
